b. On 3 October 1962, [REDACTED] was distributed to all employees and requested those employees and requested those employees interested in rush hour bus service between the Pentagon, Rosslyn and Headquarters Building to complete a questionnaire to be forwarded to the W.V.&M. Coach Company. On 5 November 1962 the Chief, Transportation Division forwarded 473 questionnaires to their Traffic Director. He reports that it would be uneconomical for them to operate this service as the busses would not be needed for the remainder of the day. Currently, they operate 179 rush hour busses and 44 full time busses and our request would increase their problem.
